Description

The premises offer well-presented retail premises suitable for a range of commercial occupiers, benefiting from strong frontage onto the High Street and high levels of passing footfall. Surrounded by established independent retailers and local amenities, the property provides an excellent opportunity to trade from a highly visible and sought-after location within this affluent Kent market town. Additional features include rear access for ease of loading, walk-in fridges, a basement level suitable for ancillary storage, and good levels of natural light throughout.

Location

17 High Street occupies a prime position in the heart of Westerham town centre, fronting directly onto the High Street within this popular and affluent Kent market town. The property benefits from strong footfall and excellent visibility, surrounded by a mix of independent retailers, cafés and local amenities. Westerham is well connected, with easy access to the M25 (Junction 5) and mainline rail services available nearby, making the location attractive to both local and visiting customers.
